Marion County Surpasses Quarter of a Million Registered Voters

Marion County, FL. February 21 -Marion County Supervisor of Elections, Wesley Wilcox is excited to announce that Marion County has surpassed a quarter of a million registered voters. Marion County is considered the 16th largest Florida county for number of registered voters. Over two decades, the number of registered voters has increased by nearly 70%. Marion County's registration growth is depicted below.

The voter registration and party change deadline for the Presidential Preference Primary was Tuesday, Feb. 18. Our office has received nearly 11,000 voter registrations since Jan. 1, more than double the amount received the same time last year.

The Marion County Supervisor of Elections is the official source of county voter registration and election information. All registered voters are encouraged to ensure their voter information is up-to-date and can lookup their voter information, request a mail ballot, and find information on upcoming elections at www.VoteMarion.Gov.
